The Food and Beverage Procedure does not apply to food and beverages that are:

- Offered in schools to students at no cost;
- Brought from home or purchased off school property and not for resale in schools;
- Available for purchase during field trips off school premises;
- Sold in schools for non-school purposes (i.e. sold by an outside organization that is using the gymnasium after school hours for a non-school-related event);
- Sold for fundraising activities that occur off school premises; or
- Sold to non-students in staff rooms.
